

EXTRA CARE HOUSING IN TEST VALLEY

Hampshire Home Choice applicants with a local connection to Test Valley may be interested in Andover's two Extra Care housing schemes, Warner Court and Lion Oak Court.

Extra Care accommodation allows older people and individuals with a disability to live as active and independent lives as possible, in self-contained accommodation with a tenancy. Care staff are on site 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, providing each resident with a specific package of planned care and support which has been agreed with Hampshire County Council Adult Services. Care may include personal care, medication prompts, meal preparation, and some domestic tasks, but will not include any form of nursing. There is also the opportunity for residents to access organised some social activities within the scheme. Residents pay rent, service charges, and a charge for any care provided. Financial support towards these costs will be determined by a financial assessment.

Warner Court, Bishops Way, Andover is a 38 unit scheme, mainly one bedroom flats. Lift, communal lounge, alarm system, hairdressing and communal laundry facilities, as well as mobility scooter storage, are available. The lower age limit for residents is 55 years.

Lion Oak Court, Salisbury Road, Andover is a 52 unit scheme, one and two bedroom flats. All flats have a wet room, and are wheelchair accessible. Two lifts, alarm system, communal lounge, hairdressing and communal laundry facilities, as well as mobility scooter storage, are available. No age restrictions.

Hampshire Home Choice applicants who are interested in extra care accommodation must be identified as being eligible for a package of care and support. Offers of accommodation are decided by the Test Valley Extra Care Housing Panel, comprising representatives from TVBC Housing, Adult Services, and the Care/Housing providers. Vacancies are not advertised on Hampshire Home Choice.

If you wish to be considered for extra care accommodation, please contact Test Valley Borough Council Housing Service on 01264 368613 / 368609.
